Many of you guys know Consuelo as “Chelo.” She is always in the art room, game deck, and computer lab. She has been working for Our Savior Center for 12 years. She is very good at her job and she has a lot of experience working with kids. Chelo not only works at kid’s campus but she also is a money counter for Dodger stadium.

I have personally known Chelo for 3 ½ years and a volunteer for 21 years from what I have seen is she is a very nice, happy, respectful person. Many of the students respect Chelo because she is a very nice lady.

Before she started working at kid’s campus she was a volunteer for kid’s time and for the food bank. While working for kid’s campus she was also taking care of her dad. Chelo would go home making him lunch make sure he is alright and come back and work. She always volunteers to clean or wash materials they use in game deck and art. Chelo also helps Sarah with the sewing club. Chelo donates supplies and her time.

Chelo started attending the program when she was pregnant with her youngest child and while she was pregnant she volunteered.

Gabriel Garcia and Brandon Ochoa third graders stated with smiles on their face that Chelo is very nice always helps when they need help and is involved when they play games. So when you see Chelo say hi to a nice kind lady!

Clever Crazes is a huge success

Many people believe that games found online are mostly games such as World of War craft and Maple Story, but what they do not know is that there are websites that are actually good for students. Some websites actually help stimulate a child’s mind and help them stay in shape as well. A website that does both of these is a website that we have been doing here at kids campus for a while. The website is called Clever Crazes, and this website is not just for the public but it is for school based programs. Clever Crazes is a website that helps kids understand many ways to stay fit and be able to work out and to help them understand many ways to be Green and be able to eat right. The website has videos of a person teaching them out to do a proper exercise. The website allows students from 3rd grade and up to be able to play the games and be part of the fun, but knowledge does not just come with this website it also puts them in a competition with many other people from different states. The competition consists of putting in points for the amount of exercises a student does. The website has videos of a person teaching them how to do a proper exercise, and once they do it in a certain time limit is the amount they put in for points. The prizes that are given to the winners are a pair of Nike Shoes and/ or a $10 dollar gift card from iTunes. Here at Kids Campus many of the students have received a liking for the Clever Crazes website. Students love to play the games including the older kids of middle school and high school. Many of the students even do the exercise during the Computer class time just to get more points. The students here really enjoy Clever Crazes and a lot of them have shown a great change in their diet to their exercises. Many of the students still want to continue the Clever Crazes games and try to win more. Some of the students that win the Nike shoes need to be the winners of every month and be at the top of the scoreboard. Here at Kids Campus we have 17 winners of the Nike Shoes plus many other winners for the $10 dollar iTunes gift cards. A lot of the students will be receiving their prizes in a couple of days.

Why students should attend second session

Simon chen
Reporter

In second session we get to go to gym, art, computer lab, and learning arena. In gym you get to play whatever Vince wants plays. I think out of the choices I can go to I think I like gym the best, if there's no gym I would like to go to my second favorite, computer lab. In computer lab you get to work on things you didn't finish in the first session. If you finished that you work on the things Yolanda gives you. As I told you before it's my second favorite place to go to. Art you get to do anything you want like drawing, painting, or painting your drawing so most of the girls like to go there, probably more than anywhere else they go to. Art room is my third favorite place to go to because I don't really like being surrounded by a lot of girls, so I go there when there's at least one person or friend I know there other than that I won't go. Last but not least learning arena, at learning arena you do your homework when you're done you have to write a story about Martin Luther King Jr. and if you finish you read a book. That's why I like it not fourth but I like a little less than art room. In second session to get kicked out you need to ask be dropped out or you miss at least five or more days but not in a row. Also you must go to every class room a week or else you will get kicked out of second session so I highly recommend going to every class room a week. And I think you will like second session or not but I think you'll like it.

I think I like first session better because most of my friends don't go to second session. So you should go to Kids Campus because you can go to first or second session and play with friends or make new ones. If you don't want to come I will tell you what you're missing. You're missing all the fun like playing in the gym or painting in the art room or missing the food that we get for free. And we get to have homework time in learning arena or using computers in Mac or computer lab. So if you change your mind you can still come next year so hope I see you there or not. But you should go to second session to because the reasons above.

The true meaning of respect

William Castellon

Respect is something that an adult would expect out of everyone. A meaning or definition is esteem for or a notice of the worth or excellence of a person, a value or skill, or something considered as an appearance of a personal quality or ability. In my opinion if you do not give people respect, you do not deserve it back. If you respect people, you deserve plenty of it coming back to you. When someone gives you respect, a nice thing to do is to give them a little bit of that back. In my opinion you earn the most respect when you are an elder, you earn the least respect when you didn't even get a college degree. An example is when you are nice to a kid' a bad example is when you are playing around, when you are supposed to listen.

Respect comes from people. It is earned when you do things for people without being asked or having esteem. Most people need respect because it builds up their character and they would be nothing without it. Not everybody comes with respect; people build respect when they are getting more mature. I would say you earn respect when you are about 13 years old. But in my opinion everybody at any age should give respect. The two authorities are the two things you can't feel, that are needed to live your life. Respect is one of the two authorities. The other authority is having fear. The combination of the authorities equals a great amount of respect. In the authorities fear has to be forced and learned and respect should be earned. But fear destroys self – confidence, while respect builds and re-builds self-confidence. Without fear

Why do artists use bad language in lyrics

Angel Diaz

Why do singers curse in their songs? Well, the reason why I think that they curse is because their feelings are hurt or their going through a tough time. For example maybe they have just broken up with their boyfriend/girlfriend or maybe a loved one has just died. As you can see there are many reasons why they might have curse in their songs but I guess we'll never find out unless they tell us, which I highly doubt. One of the singers that have cursed in their songs is Cee-lo Green in his song 'Forget You', another song that has cursing in it is 'Deuces' by Chris Brown. As you can see, singers curse even though there not suppose to.

I personally do not agree with singers that curse in their songs. One of the many reasons why I do not agree with the singers that curse in their songs is because little kids might hear their songs and might repeat the word in school or around their friends, causing them to get in trouble. Another reason why I do not agree with cursing in songs is because if the singers are hurt or damaged they shouldn't be going around cursing in between their songs; in fact they should be giving off a better example to the rest of the people who might be going through the same situation. The major reason why I don't agree with singers cursing in there is because it's a bad influence on people, but not just the young people the older generation as well, it sends out a message that says that it's ok to curse because I'm famous and I do it. As you can see I have a Farley strong opinion towards the cursing in songs, well that's just my opinion other people might have a different opinion.

The singers have many other options instead of cursing in their songs. For example instead of cursing they could just use Farley strong words that express their feelings. One of the songs that show this is a song called "The Scientist" by Coldplay. The song basically says that he's sorry and that he wants his love of his life back. I think that the strongest, emotional part of the song are the lyrics when he says "Nobody said it was easy Oh, it's such a shame for us to part Nobody said it was easy No one ever said it would be so hard I'm going back to the start." The reason why I think that this is a good way to express yourself without cursing is because when a relationship starts people only think of the good things that come with it, they don't think of the negative things. Another song that expresses itself through strong words is "Please Don't Go" by Mike Posner. The song says that he does not want the girl to go away from his life. One of the lyrics that I think is very emotionally strong is the part where he says "Lets run away from these lies back to yesterday" because sometimes a person might not want to be in his/her place, so that is why I think that is a good way to express yourself. Overall, there are better ways for singers to send out a strong message instead of cursing.

Unfortunate events

A series of unfortunate events is a book about a person named Count Olaf. He is the main purpose why three little orphans are stuck with an evil guardian. Those three Baudelaire's lost their parents in a tragedy accident. They were stuck in a fire inside their own home. Ever since they lost their parents, the orphans find a letter that contained the words "hope and encouragement". Count Olaf was always stalking them. He made them live with him. The orphans learned how to cook for Olaf. He treated them like slaves. He actually murdered the orphans past guardians. He gets arrested and then later escapes. He doggedly hunts them down in till they give up and surrender. The three orphans never surrender to Olaf because they know how mentally brutal he is to them. The three orphans seek new adventures beyond their journeys to mysterious places. Count Olaf always tries to be in disguises so the next guardian will not notice that it is the evil Olaf. The Orphans always know it is Olaf is in disguise from the other times he tried to kidnap them. The reason why Olaf is trying to keep the orphans from going to other guardians is because he wants their money that their parents left behind from their deaths. The series of books shows an example of how some people can be in the real world. Some selfish families try to kidnap or be guardians of orphans due to their inheritance, if their parents are not in the picture. It is a good series of books to read because it has adventure, comedy, and excitement. It draws in the attention of the reader by the way the orphans choose to behave with the guardian. I would recommend the series to many people who love to read.

Mt. Vesuvius

Mark Mata

Have you ever heard when Pompeii and Herculaneum got buried from hot ash, lava, it killed at least 16000 people, and in AD 79 they thought the God was angry at them for their sins. Pompeii and Herculaneum are located at Italy. Mt. Vesuvius largest eruption was in 1631. However it isn't the largest the eruption the biggest eruption was Mount Tambour killed 19,000 people in 1815. Even though the Mt. Tambour erupted the largest Mt. Vesuvius erupted more than fifty times but the lava doesn't go all the way to the bottom. Still don't get to close but stay away to not get burn but look at it look like a show .However it last eruption was on 1944. This volcano is about 17,000 thousand year old. Even if this Mt. is dangerous many people still come to live close to it. If people like to climb, got the guts, or just want to study the Mt. they'll go start climbing the Mt. The height of the Mt. is as 4190 feet .When they got to the top their going to see hot steam from little holes. The steam lets out some of the pressure for the Mt. can't erupt all the time. A lot of people know that no one supposed to touch the steam because it about 2200F if you do you will get burn trebly. When volcanoes about to erupt it gives only two warning first there will be an earthquake after that the volcanoes will blow nitrogen gas. If you breathe too much nitrogen you will lose consciousness and even if you survive you have to get a medical treatment if not you get lung cancer. Since Mt. Vesuvius had a powerful blast large rock will come down really fast and even little rock could kill easily. If you want to protect yourself the best decision is to run from the warning and live from the real disaster. If you don't it won't be pretty for your ending life.

Recession

Jaieleen loza

Have you ever heard of the word recession? Wouldn't you want to know because the U.S went through this in 2007 and it's still going on? The recession means when the economy is going backwards or to the reverse? The recession in the U.S was affecting the ordinary people of the middle and lower class because most of our parents do not earn a high amount of money. The recession was affecting all laboratories, markets, industries, agriculture, transportation, the student, and trade. There are different ways that affect the economy. For example when a barrel of oil increases it raises the cost of petrol, gas, and electricity. Having to spend more on food, people have to spend on buying cars and other products from different industries. Having no sales people lose their homes or property. We can help our families not affect us in a very dramatic way. We can begin to cut our expenses that are not necessary. We shouldn't use a car when we could walk whenever possible or use other means of transportation such as the bus, train, bicycle, skateboard, or simply share the car with other colleagues' in work or classmates in school. Use coupons to but buy food, fruits, and vegetables in the season that are better and cheaper. Also you shouldn't go too very expensive restaurants very often or places where you can cut our budget. There are places that are not very expensive and have much more fun. For example the parks were you can have a relaxing picnic, the beach, or simply ride a bike around the lake. Also remember to always turn off the lights and unplug everything to save electricity, turn off the water when you're not using it and do not last long in the showers. Recycle cans and useful things that can be used in the future.

In the AFC championship the Pittsburg Steelers faced the New York Jets. In the beginning the Jets won the coin toss and decided to kick off to the Steelers. Nick Folk from the Jets kicks off to the Steelers and Antonio Brown returns it 23 yards to their own 34. When the Steelers were facing a third down they got some new downs because of a face mask on Antonio Cromartie. Mike Wallace makes a small catch on third and five to get another first down. Ben Roethlisberger got hit on his left thigh. They said, "He was supposed to be hobbling." Rashard Mendenhall ran for eight yards and makes a first down at Jets 29.

Heath Miller made a diving catch and he caught it at the Jets 2. The Jets challenge the catch. They were smart about challenging it because it was an incomplete pass and they were still on the Jets 23 yard line. Ben Roethlisberger steps up to the pocket and runs 12 yard to get a first down at the Jets 13. Ben Roethlisberger pumps it fake twice and throws it to Hines ward to get to the Jets 1 yard line. Jericho Cotchery receives the kick off and he returned it 12 yards. The Jets first possession starts from there 27. Mark Sanchez from the Jets threw a bullet to Jericho Cotchery for 14 yards at their 41 with the first down. The Jets got a first down because of illegal contact. Another flag goes up because of Ike Taylor made a pass interference. The Jets get the ball on the Steelers forty-three. Jericho Cotchery returns the kick from the safety to their own forty-three. Braylon Edwards made a sprawling catch and he put his team on the Steelers thirty-six. Dustin Keller made it one yard short of a first down at the Steelers twenty-seven. It is a two-minute warning until the end of the game and Rashard Mendenhall gains two yards. Ben Roethlisberger makes three consecutive kneels to make a twenty -nine to nineteen victory.

Lakers

Daniel Cativo
Reporter

In the beginning the Lakers were called the Minneapolis Lakers from 1947 -1980. Then the Timberwolves were called Minnesota Timberwolves. Lakers won 31 games and lost 12. Kobe Bryant is the youngest player to play basketball. Lakers won the champion ship 17 times. The Lakers have a coach named Phil Jackson. The Lakers have a lot of famous people back then, Magic Johnson was a famous basketball player. He got MVP, which stands for most valuable player.

The Lakers rivals are the Celtics. The Celtics won 18 games. The three best players back then in the Lakers are Jerry West, Magic Johnson, James Worthy. Their rivals back then for the Lakers where the Boston Celtics they were the hardest team to beat. The Lakers came from Minneapolis. The Lakers had a lot of good players back then the old ones retired. In 2000 - 2001 they won 3 championships in a row. In 1949-51 they won their first game they had a huge parade and they celebrated and had a good time. 1954-58 they had new rules for the Lakers they said it was bad rules. Back then they got a lot of champion a lot of the good players came from 1941 -2010. The Lakers walked away with the NBA crown one season. Back then the best player in the Lakers is Magic

Johnson. Magic had so many championships. They made a statue of a famous basketball player in the Lakers. Back then it took a lot of work to do the statue it took a few years
